

ACTION PACKED EDITORIAL GUIDELINES

ACtion Packed is the newsletter of the Australian Cerebral Palsy Association. All contributions to ACtion Packed are considered for publication. Preference is given to short articles and letters, and photographs are always welcome. Generally, articles of less than 300 words are preferred for publication. When sending in contributions, please mark your name, address and phone number clearly. Where your request is for us to reprint an article, please obtain permission from the original author. The views in ACtion Packed are not necessarily the views of the Association, and although the Association is usually prepared to print items from other organisations and individuals, it takes no responsibility for the accuracy of those items.

Please send your article either as a hard copy or on disk (please indicate whether or not you want the disk returned), or you may send you article via our E-mail address: helen.watts@cpawa.com.au

When forwarding an article for publication, please make sure you include the name of the person and the agency submitting the article.
